Last night I cooked an Italian dish—spaghetti(意大利面条) with meat sauce(肉酱) for my family.

I put enough spaghetti for everyone in my family into a pot of boiling, salted water. I let it cook for about ten minutes. But before this, I made meat sauce.

I wanted the meat sauce to be really delicious. I cut up an onion. Then I put a little oil into a pot, added the onion and cooked it in the oil for a few minutes.

When the onion was soft, I put some ground(绞碎的) beef into the pot and cooked them together for a few minutes. Then I added tomatoes and some mixed herbs(香草). Finally, I added some tomato juice and cooked them on a low heat for about an hour.

When the spaghetti was ready, I put it into a large bowl. Then I poured the meat sauce over it. There was enough for everyone. And we all put some cheese on the top of the spaghetti.
