My name is Eliza and my best friend is Claire. We are classmates and we are interested in the same hobby. We both like music. I'm good at English, but Claire isn't. She has a great interest in university life and wants to go to college when she leaves school. But her English is not very good.

One day, I found her studying English and I wanted to help her with it. But she closed the book suddenly(突然地). I asked, "What are you doing?"

“Nothing,” she answered shyly. I didn’t know why she closed her book. “Did I find your secret(秘密)? I just wanted to help you,” I asked. She answered, “Please don’t laugh at me. My English is not good and I’m a little nervous(紧张的) about learning English in front of others.”

“Nervous? Well, that’s why you can’t do well in English. None of your friends will laugh at you! You should try your best to study English with your friends. Then you can get help from them.”

- () 1. Eliza and Claire are in different schools.
 - () 2. Eliza likes music but Claire doesn't.
 - () 3. Claire wants to go to university after she leaves school.
 - () 4. Eliza really wants to help Claire with her English.
 - () 5. Eliza won't laugh at Claire because they are best friends.
