拓展提能

四、阅读理解。

Students are very interested in computers, the Internet and mobile phones. Using new technologies in the classroom can be very helpful for them.

Mobile phones can be very useful in the classroom. When students speak or act, teachers can use them to record students, take photos and show them to students. Using mobile phones in class is a fun way of doing some interesting language work.

Students like the photos on your mobile phone. So try your best to take more photos for students. Photos can help students to practice speaking, listening or writing in an interesting way.

How to use the Internet and mobile phones in class? Please remember the following key points.

- Use the Internet with your students in many different ways, if possible.
- Try to find good websites for your students.
- Use your mobile phone in class to record your students, take photos and play recordings.
- Ask your students to listen for the pronunciation mistakes when you play the recordings back to them.

根据短文内容,判断句子正(T)误(F)。

- (     )1. Students are interested in new technologies.
- (     )2. Mobile phones are useful but boring in language learning.
- (     )3. Teachers should find good websites for students.
- (     )4. Mobile phones can be only used to record students and take photos in class.
- (     )5. The key points to remember are for students.
