B(海口一中月考卷)

“It is never too late and you are never too old to start something new!” says Englishtown student Ellen Rema. Ellen began to learn English at the age of fifty, and in just a few years, she has made great progress!

Ellen chose to study on Englishtown because no evening classes were offered in the German countryside where she lives. On Englishtown, she has conversation classes online and speaks with native English-speaking teachers.

“Englishtown is a wonderful place for study,” she says. Ellen began with the first level(水平) of Englishtown and quickly progressed. “I spent hours and hours studying,” she said. “Maybe I wanted too much in a short time. I finished all my courses after 2 years, but I still had grammar difficulties.”

Instead of giving up, she chose to continue. After another two years on Englishtown, she’s studying in the online classroom. “Studying online is never boring, but you need practice, practice, practice!”

Ellen says studying English isn’t all about hard work. It should also be fun. “I really like the online conversation classrooms,” she says, “I have learned so much about other cultures and traditions.”

Ellen has been able to put her English to use by visiting England five times! “I’m very thankful to Englishtown because my life has improved because of it.” Ellen says.

- ()46. Ellen started to learn English _____.
- A. 50 years ago
 - B. in a city of Germany
 - C. when she was a high school student
 - D. when she was 50 years old

- ()47. Why did Ellen study English on Englishtown?
A. She had no free time during the day.
B. She lived far away from school.
C. There were no evening classes near her home.
D. Englishtown was a famous website to learn English.
- ()48. Ellen had trouble learning _____.
A. pronunciation B. grammar
C. writing D. listening
- ()49. How long has Ellen learned English?
A. For 2 years. B. For 4 years.
C. For 6 years. D. For 15 years.
- ()50. What's the main idea of this passage?
A. You are never too old to learn something new.
B. Englishtown is a good place to visit.
C. The courses are good on Englishtown.
D. Studying English is not boring at all.

八、(吉林省中考)任务型阅读。(10分)

If you want to learn English well, you have to practice speaking English! Use these sentences to help you start interesting conversations in English.

- ()51. We should try to do things independently(独立地), rather than wait for help. Do you think our schools stop us from thinking independently? How can we become more independent? Can we help our classmates to be more independent? How?
- ()52. I find this to be true with my students. If they only recite without understanding, they can not use English well. Have you ever tried to recite many English words? What is the result? Do you know some people that only follow but never think? What are they like? Do you know anyone who is a clear thinker? What is that person like?
- ()53. How can laughter help us in our daily life? Do you think humor is helpful if we are really sick? Do you know anyone who laughs all the time? What is that person like? Do you know someone who never laughs? Do you enjoy being around that person?

- ()54. Do you have many friends or just a few very close friends? How did you meet your best friend? What advice would you give a newcomer to your school to help him or her meet new friends? What would you do to help your best friends?
- ()55. How should we eat to stay healthy? What do you think is the most healthy food we can eat every day? Do you eat very healthy food? Or do you prefer delicious but not so healthy food? What food should we avoid eating? Besides eating well, what should we do for our health?
