Listen and match

Lily

The diagram illustrates a matching exercise. It features five cartoon characters at the top and five television screens at the bottom. Blue lines connect each character to a specific screen:

- The man with glasses (green shirt) is connected to the news anchor screen.
- The woman in the pink shirt is connected to the rabbit on a surfboard screen.
- The man in the light blue shirt is connected to the man working on a car screen.
- The woman in the red and white jacket is connected to the basketball player screen.
- Lily (woman in the orange shirt) is connected to the elephant screen.
